

PROVISIONS OF NEW TARIFF BILL

Measure Is Expected to Yield Large Revenue.

RATES LOWERED BY SENATE

As Prepared by the House the Average Duties Were About 30 Per Cent and as Finally Adopted the Average Is About 27 Per Cent—The Payne-Aldrich Bill Carried Average Duties of 35 Per Cent—Free List Is Increased.

PROGRESS OF THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

The following shows the chronological history of the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill:

- Jan. 6 to Feb. 1—Hearings, house ways and means committee.
- April 7—Bill introduced by Mr. Underwood and referred to the ways and means committee.
- April 22—Bill reported by Mr. Underwood after Democratic caucus had approved it.
- May 8—Passed house of representatives—yes, 281; nay, 158.
- May 9—Received by the senate and referred to finance committee.
- June 26—Bill completed by senate finance committee and referred to Democratic caucus.
- July 11—Bill reported to senate by Chairman Simmons with recommendations that it pass.
- July 21—Made unfinished business of senate.
- Sept. 5—Passed by senate—yes, 46; nay, 27.
- Sept. 11—House nonconcur in senate amendments, and bill goes to conference.
- Sept. 26—Conference reach final adjustment.

After being under consideration in congress for nearly six months the new tariff bill is a law, and for the first time in nearly a quarter of a century the country has a tariff law originated by the Democratic party. The bill will doubtless be known as the Underwood-Simmons bill, taking the title from Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee of the house and Chairman Simmons of the finance committee of the senate.

The sponsors for the bill say that it will raise ample revenue. Chairman Simmons has been advised that it will yield a surplus of at least $16,000,000 a year above current expenses. If it does not meet the expenses of running the government the expenses will be reduced.

One remarkable thing about the present tariff bill, a precedent, in fact, is that the senate cut the average rate of duty carried by the bill below that fixed by the house. Heretofore in the making of a tariff bill the house has slashed the rates, while the senate has then taken up the bill and readjusted the rates on a higher general average.

The house bill carried a general average rate slightly below 30 per cent. This the senate cut a little over 4 per cent. The conference committee has raised the general average duty but slightly. The average ad valorem duty carried by the bill as perfected is about 27 per cent. The average under the present law is about 35 per cent.

Many Changes Considered.

The conference committee had to deal with 676 paragraphs on which there were disagreements. Some of these involved only the change of a word or a question of punctuation, but a majority of them represented differences in rates and a few were fundamental.

The house conferees also accepted the senate amendment fixing dates when the wool duties shall go into effect, which was one of the final stumbling blocks.

Raw wool will go on the free list on Dec. 1, and the reduced duties carried by the present bill will become effective on Jan. 1. The house bill proposed to make the wool duties effective immediately on the bill being signed by the president. The final action was an important concession to the manufacturers.

The senate won over the house also on controverted paragraphs in the schedule relating to cotton cloths and yarns. By this agreement slightly higher duties are given to certain coarser grades of cotton cloths and yarns by changing the classification.

Fur hats and frames, forms and other parts for the manufacture of such hats received a rate of 45 per cent. This matter affects the hat industry in Connecticut. The house fixed the rate at 40 per cent, the senate made it 45.

The silk schedule also was reopened, and the rate on silk partially manufactured from cocoons or wastes, not further advanced in manufacture than carded or combed silk, and silk noils, was reduced from 30 to 20 cents per pound.

The Metal Schedule.

Probably no single industry covered by the tariff bill suffered such reductions in duties as did the iron and steel industry. The house cut duties unsparingly, and then the senate followed by making still further reductions and increasing the free list.

The house, for example, placed a duty of 8 per cent on pig iron, spiegelman, scrap iron and scrap steel and like products and made ferro-manganese dutiable at 15 per cent. The senate free listed both of them, and the conference (Continued on page 4.)

ACCUSED OF TAKING HORSES.

Rube Alvis of Elmo Arrested Today at Request of Harrisonville, Mo. Authorities.

Rube Alvis of Elmo was arrested Friday morning by Sheriff Ed Wallace and brought to Maryville. Alvis, who is 25 years old, is charged with stealing three horses from a man named Frank Hale of Belton, Cass county, Mo., some two weeks ago. The horses were traced to Kansas City, where all track of them were lost. Alvis was located in Elmo.

Alvis claims that he was not in Belton at the time of the horses being taken, and don't know anything about the same. He has a brother at Belton, who he visited often, and has another brother at Burlington Junction. His brother at Belton lives close to the man that the horses were taken from.

Alvis was taken to Harrisonville this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff R. F. Trullinger.

RURAL SCHOOL TO GO.

The Government Urges Consolidation of Country Districts.

The old fashioned one-room school house of the country cross roads, with in whose walls many of the country's most illustrious men received the rudiments of their education, would be entirely a thing of the past if the United States bureau of education at Washington had its way. Its place would be taken by the consolidated or centralized school, as recommended in a bulletin just issued by the bureau.

Wherever that change can be made without too great expense and without breaking up or disintegrating existing communities, it should be done, says the bureau. There is constant improvement in the facilities offered by the one-room rural school, particularly in relating school work to the farm needs, it is reported. Fewer and better schools with transportation furnished to pupils living at a distance is the recommendation.

The total number of males placed were 583; total number unfilled was 22. The total number of placed by males, 483; total number unfilled, 22. The total number of places filled by females, 85. Mr. Morris adds to his report that the volume of business continues to increase from month to month. The business for September was the banner month in the history of the state labor bureau.

FOR TUBERCULOSIS

A FRIEDMANN INSTITUTE MAY BE LOCATED HERE.

MAY FORM A COMPANY

W. B. Starkey of Des Moines, Ia., Is Here Interviewing Business Men in Regard to the Plan.

Maryville has been selected as a place where a Friedmann institute for Tuberculosis will be located if the proper encouragement is received. And Maryville will be the only place in Missouri where such treatment will be given.

Such is the statement of W. B. Starkey of Des Moines, Iowa, who is in Maryville today on business in connection with interviewing several of our citizens in regard to the proposition. Mr. Starkey is a former Maryville boy, was born and raised here, and would like to see the city have such an institution. In talking about the proposition, he said:

"Our plans are to organize a stock company here under the laws of the state for $150,000. Of this stock, $5,000 to be sold here and in this state. The rest of the stock to Dr. Friedmann and the parent stock company. Then to build or buy a place for a sanitarium. I have been corresponding and have looked over the old Shoemaker property in East Maryville across from the Burlington depot. That would be a good place for the sanitarium.

"We have the Friedmann institute in Iowa, only one town having it. I became interested and took some stock and it has proven to be a regular gold mine. The investment is a good one and the people will find it to be that way here. It is a good proposition for the town, it will advertise and bring many people here. When the proposition was first brought up to locate on institute in Missouri, five towns were suggested, Maryville being in the list. I at once said that I wanted to see it located in this town, it being my former home. So they sent me down here to see if the proposition would meet with favor.

"So far, the encouragement I have received is very favorable and I have two or three more people to see this afternoon. I am going to wire S. Elkan of New York City, the secretary, to come here at once and then the plans for the organization of the company will start.

"If Maryville is not in favor of the institution, then the chances are it will be located at Joplin, Sedalia or some other point.

"The Friedmann treatment for tuberculosis cost very little. For instance, it will cost $150 and on up and three injections will be necessary in the cases, each injection being thirty days apart. If a person that is poor and worthy and can't pay $150 for the treatment, then it will be given free of charge.

"Of course, it is necessary to have a sanitarium in connection with the laboratory. Patients would want to stay here while taking treatment."

Mr. Starkey will be in the city for a few days. He is the attorney for the Standard Disturbing company which have the rights in the United States for the Friedmann cures.

Was a Close Call.

Peter Curry met with an experience last Saturday that he will not soon forget, says the Hopkins Journal. He was in his Red driving from Hopkins to Maryville when he met a team near the corner where you turn to drive onto the Davey Jones river bridge. There is a deep ditch at this corner, and he pulled to one side and stopped his car to allow the team to pass. He proved to be too near the edge of the ditch and the rear right wheel dropped down, making it necessary to get a team to pull him out. A few inches more would have caused the car to have turned over. Beside himself, his wife and Abadore Shroyer were in the car and all were badly frightened.

SECURING HONORS

FAIR A GREAT SUCCESS

Bellevue's Bull, Radium, Gets First in Junior Champion Class—Others Get Many Firsts.

C. D. Bellows, a member of the state board of agriculture, returned Friday morning from attending a meeting of the board at Sedalia, and also taking in the state fair, which is in progress this week at that place. The fair has been a great success, and the attendance is greater than it has ever been before.

Mr. Bellows reports that the Nodaway county boys are taking the honors. Mr. Bellows' herd bull, Radium, which he purchased last spring and will receive this fall, took first in the junior champion class. The bull has won many prizes at all the fairs held in this section of the country.

Omar Catterson & Son of this city and C. D. and E. F. Caldwell of Burlington Junction are taking many prizes on their Aberdeen Angus cattle at the fair. They have much competition, but seem to be leading them all with their stock.

J. F. Roelofson is winning several prizes with his Percheron horses.

W. W. Andrews of this city is in attendance. The school for the boys has been very successful, and next year efforts will be made to send four from each county instead of one.

There were thirty-four entries in the 1913 live stock judging contests. The high men in the contest are all students in the agricultural school at Columbia. Charles Caldwell of Burlington Junction was third in this contest. Nodaway county is noted for her fine live stock, and at every place the stock is exhibited they always take the premiums.

DR. NEELY WRITES

FELT SURE THAT WIFE HAD OBTAINED A DIVORCE.

TELLS HIS SIDE OF CASE

And the Beginning of His Troubles—Ready to Serve Out Sentence and Will Act Like a Man.

Dr. James E. Neely, the Elmo physician, who was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, after pleading guilty to the charge of bigamy, has written a statement to this paper. Dr. Neely will be taken to the pen some time next week. The following is the statement which was written in the county jail on Wednesday night:

Editor Democrat-Forum: I desire to thank the people of Elmo and vicinity through your paper for their kindness and patronage in the past and for sympathy shown in my present trouble.

Would like to say that the statements I made to the court are all true. I felt absolutely sure that my wife had obtained a divorce. She had sued me for divorce and separate maintenance in Henry county, Mo., two years ago this September. My attorney, Judge Crawford, advised me to sign a waiver of personal service, and sent it in as her attorney had written him wanting personal service. This I did in April, 1912. The court held there in May, 1912. I heard nothing at all until sometime after court had adjourned, when I saw a statement in a daily paper printed at Clinton, Mo., "Nora A. Neely vs. Jas. E. Neely, divorce, alias writ to any county in State."

This looked plain to me that she had obtained a divorce. The word alias I did not understand, and I thought as it was not a medical term that the best place to go for a definition was to Webster, and so I consulted Webster and found this definition that applied to the case. "Alias writ—A second writ or execution issued when the first has failed to satisfy the judgment." This applied to the case as she had obtained a judgment against me in Henry county for $3,000 temporary alimony. This I was willing for her to have. So I felt absolutely free. When, however, I found I had married that she had not obtained a divorce, I asked Mr. George P. Wright how I could correct my mistake, and explained the situation to him and asked him if my last wife and I should separate.

Mr. Wright said: "You have violated the law in the letter but not in the spirit, and there is not a jury in Christendom that would punish a man under such circumstances. But it is no use to send your present wife away."

This was last fall. I went back to Elmo and she and I talked it over and decided that it was best to separate, and she packed up and was ready to go away when I suggested that I would write to Mr. Wright and ask his advice about her going away. This I did and Mr. Wright wrote that it would be no use to send her away.

So we lived together all winter and she helped me in my practice, and I want to say she was of great value to me in my practice. The night was never too dark or stormy for her to go with me for company and to help. She made every night drive that I made except one the whole winter long. She did the work well of a trained nurse. I want to state here that any charge or inference made by Mr. Wright or my former wife of any illegitimate condition whatever, and I know whereof I speak, is erroneous.

To go back to the beginning of my trouble, I must go back to the first marriage, for our trouble began soon after we were married. The first summer I needed some farm implements, and asked the use of her money to buy them. Later a young sister of mine wanted to live with us, as she had no home. She came to our place but Mrs. Neely made it so miserable for me that I had to threaten to leave if my home was not good enough for sister and I both, but on account of my two boys, who were small then, I thought it out, and sister went away. We had various troubles and the gap widened until I finally left after the boys were grown. We had gotten along so badly in the last few years that I frequently expostulated with her and asked her to allow us to adjust our difficulties and live more peaceably, stating that I could not stand her quarrelling and nagging, and I would be bound to get away, but she would not listen to me, but would raise such a disturbance as to make a veritable hell on earth when I would come home from the office to dinner or supper. I left her well fixed at Calhoun, leaving a nice home well furnished and paid for, three acres of vacant land adjoining the home, a fine Jersey cow that I had paid $75 for, a horse and two buggies, about 100 head of blooded chickens, about $500 of collectable accounts. A first class office (Continued on page 2.)

FIVE INTEREST IN MEETINGS.

Two Were Received for Baptism at the First Baptist Church Wednesday Evening.

The attendance at the revival meetings in progress at the First Baptist church is increasing each night. The pastor, Rev. Hale, is directing all his messages this week to Christians, and his plain speech is causing all who hear him to think seriously upon the responsible positions they occupy as professing Christians. He believes that 95 per cent of the church members are asleep spiritually, and says it is no evidence whatever that a man is a saved man simply because he is a member of a church. It all depends on his personal relation to Jesus Christ.

He brought out the truth from the Scripture that it is a sure test of one's religion to know how much of an effort one is putting forth to save some one; how interested we are in the members of our own families or our friends; how much we are willing to do; what sacrifice we are willing to make that Maryville may be saved from the many evil influences that are at work.

The subject for Rev. Hale's sermon Wednesday night was found in the 5th chapter of Ephesians—"And walk in love, even as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God." The entire chapter was reviewed, and contained explicit instructions on the daily walk and habits of a Christian. They should be taken as simple commandments from a loving father, every word given in love.

"When love is the controlling principle of a man or woman's life there is positively no failure, for love never fails. The success of a church depends upon its love for Christ and how much it is willing to do for His sake, for everything depends upon Him. The measure of our power is the measure of our love. We will have power with men if we love them, for every human heart will respond to the touch of love," said the preacher.

Two were received for baptism at the close of the service.

The services Thursday evening were of still greater interest. Rev. Hale used for his text Isaiah's answer to the call of God in his vision, "Here am I, send me." He said the great need of the Christian churches today is a vision that is born of the right conception of God. That is the greatest weakness of all Christians, they do not know God; they do not have the right conception of His holiness. His mighty love, majesty and power. If only the eyes of professing Christians were opened to the actual conditions about them they would be stirred to an effort in behalf of those who are without Christ that could never know defeat. Isaiah dwelt among an unclean people, yet he had a vision of God, His character, and the conditions that led him to cry out in eagerness, "Here am I; send me."

"It's a man's job, being a Christian. There is no child's play about it. It calls forth the greatest consecration, the exertion of every power that God has given us to live as we should and lead others. But it is a glorious life because we share with our Saviour His sufferings for us in doing for others. It is the love of Christ that constrains us and holds to the work of seeking to lead men to Him. If it was not for the love I have for Christ and the knowledge that He has called me to the ministry, I would leave the pulpit and never go back to it, for the persecution of indifference that workers endure in His service is as great today and is as hard to bear as in the days of Christ's ministry on earth."

There was one addition to the church and one request for prayer.

Coughed Up the Pin.

Our readers will remember that in this paper appeared an article about two weeks ago of little Kenzie Butts, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butts, residing west of Hopkins, swallowing a pin. The little girl came near choking to death at the time, and might have died but for the presence of mind of the father, who poked his index finger down her throat, thus dislodging the pin, it being taken for granted that the pin had passed into the child's stomach. Apparently the incident caused the little girl no trouble, but of course the parents could not help worrying and were greatly relieved last Friday when Kenzie, while coughing, brought forth the pin with the phlegm raised from her lungs.

outfit, consisting of all kinds of instruments, nebulizer and X-ray, together with a large supply of medicines and medical books. I brought $800 with me when I left, but of course that is gone long ago and she has spent her money. She spent her money lawing me, and finally her attorney, not mine, suggested that I send her money to come to Maryville, and she would have the case nolle prosequi. This I did, but I felt that it would be of no use to do that, from the fact that she could put the case back in court any time she saw fit inside of two years. I told my attorney that it was absolutely useless to do that, for I knew her disposition better than any one else, and I knew she would stick me for the cost and then turn her nose up about something and put the case back. This she did, because she heard and Mr. Wright heard a rumor that I was living with the second wife again, which was not true. She came to Elmo from St. Louis, where she had been working to get some of her belongings, but we did not live together as man and wife, as the hotel people know, and we were not out at night, as Mr. Wright thought. She had her room and I had mine, and I was never in her room nor she in mine. In a few days she went away and never returned. The first wife wrote for money, and money was and is all she wants, and I sent her some money, and intended to send more the next week, but she and Mr. Wright had me arrested the second time that week. In the meantime, however, to show you that she was after money and property as well as revenge, she sent a deed for me to sign over to my Calhoun property, but I refused to do that, and as soon as I wrote that I would not, I was arrested again.

Now that it is all over and I must serve a term, I feel that I am relieved of any obligation to my boys, as they were instrumental in bringing about my punishment. I could have been of service to them and could have aided the older ones, who are afflicted with tuberculosis of one kidney. And the younger one, who has two years of high school work yet, and then wants to study dentistry.

I have never had any desire to get away or shun any requirements of the law for I desire to do right and want to have it over and will do my best at the state house to show myself to be a man.

J. E. NEELY.
When a representative of this paper interviewed Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright, he said: "I have no comment to make and would engage in no newspaper controversy or discussion. Dr. Neely had able counsel, who no doubt investigated the merits of this case, and he, acting under their advice, entered a plea of guilty as charged. The court, after a careful consideration of the facts and Dr. Neely's statement, assessed the punishment at two years."

SOME EVIDENCE IS STRICKEN OUT

One Motion by Governor Sulzer's Counsel Allowed.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Adjournment until Monday afternoon was taken in the impeachment trial of Governor Sulzer after a few motions made by counsel for the defense had been disposed of.

The first motion had to do with the instruction of testimony of Louis A. Sarecky, the governor's campaign secretary, taken before the Frawley committee. This was testified to by the stenographer who reported it. Judge Cullen held the testimony was hearsay and would go out.

The next motion was to strike out certain testimony of J. B. Gray, the Wall street broker, in regard to a conversation he had with F. S. Colwell, the governor's alleged Wall street agent. Judge Cullen ruled that the testimony would stand.

TWO MEN RELEASED

Judge Humphries Angry as Colleagues Bar Way to Prison.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—After Superior Judge John E. Humphries had sent twelve men and six women to the county jail for contempt of his court, a consultation of other judges of the superior court was held. Thorwald Siegfried, an attorney, who previously had complained to the bar association of Judge Humphries in regard to his use of the writ of injunction, was requested to apply for a writ of procedure.

Siegfried applied to Judge Everett Smith for the release of Glenn Hoyer, an attorney for the Free Speech Defense league, and G. H. Hodgson, one of the signers of "resolutions of protest" against Judge Humphries' anti-street speaking injunctions, and they were released on their own recognizance.

Judge Humphries was very angry when he heard of the consultation of his fellow judges and the release of two of the prisoners. He will not submit to the press, in which he denounced the other judges.

The scene in Judge Humphries' court was remarkable. The court room was jammed to suffocation and the crowd interrupted and applauded frequently. Most of the prisoners when arraigned expressed anew their contempt for the judge and defied him to do his worst.

AMERICAN CHILD SLAIN

Foreigners Maltreated by Chinese Brigands at Tsaoyang.

Peking, Oct. 3.—The American legation here received a report from J. Paul Jameon, vice consul general at Shanghai, stating that an American child had been killed and other foreigners were being maltreated by Chinese brigands at Tsaoyang.

The legation fears that the Chinese government troops are neither capable nor zealous enough to accomplish the release of the American and Norwegian missionaries in the hands of the bandits at Tsaoyang and that ransom alone can save the lives of foreigners still in captivity.

Mrs. Herrick has since been teaching art and expression in the Baptist college at LaGrange, Mo., where she has lived the greater part of her life. To Tennessee on Honeymoon.

A quiet wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Jones on West Second street, when Miss Sadie Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Pierson, living southwest of Maryville, was united in marriage to Mr. Alva A. Hardisty, a prosperous young farmer of the same community, and a son of A. Hardisty of East First street.

The pretty bride wore a most becoming gown of white embroidered voile trimmed in shadow lace. Her going away suit was of navy blue serge, felt hat of the same color, trimmed in white plumes. Mr. and Mrs. Hardisty left on the afternoon Burlington train on a two or three weeks' honeymoon to Memphis, Tenn., and other points.

They stand on the front row with good young people and enjoy the esteem of many friends. They will be at home on the Hardisty farm, seven miles southwest of Maryville.

Johnson at luncheon Wednesday evening at a hotel, and on Thursday visited them in their home. Mr. Goforth succeeded Mr. Johnson as agent at the Burlington station in Maryville. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who have many friends in our city, asked many more questions than Mr. Goforth could reply to in regard to Maryville and Maryville people, showing their interest in the best town and the best people in the world has not near vanished, although they have been away for fifteen years or more.

Society Met in Country.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. D. Kemp, north of Maryville. Forty members were present and there were several visitors, Mrs. S. A. Muse, Mrs. W. R. Wells, Mrs. T. K. Wray, Mrs. Clara Stewart, Mrs. H. W. Hull and Miss Ethel Embree and her guest, Miss Elizabeth McGrew of Washington, Pa. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. O. C. Hanna, with Scripture reading, followed with prayer led by Mrs. H. D. Anderson. The lesson was from the first chapter of the mission study book, "The King's Business," read by Mrs. Catherine Funk. The mystery box quiz was conducted by Mrs. Hanna. During the business session Mrs. J. W. Nixon, Mrs. M. D. Kemp, Mrs. W. O. Garrett, Mrs. Gilbert S. Cox and Mrs. R. S. Branger were elected delegates to the Kansas City branch conference in that city, October 16-20, with Mrs. W. B. Christie and Mrs. J. A. Lesh as alternates. The silver side of the mystery box contest then announced their decision to send Mrs. Walter Mutz to the Kansas City meeting as a delegate. The contest was very successful and was divided into two sections, the "silvers" and the "golds," the silvers making the best showing. During the social hour the company was served by Mrs. W. T. Ramsey, Mrs. Walter Mutz and Mrs. S. H. Kemp. Other guests of the afternoon were Miss Jane Barrow, Mrs. G. R. Epperson and her sister, Mrs. Martha Patrick of Pacific Grove, Cal.

ference committee after a considerable deadlock yielded to the senate. The senate also free listed slabs, blooms, loops and other products of iron more advanced than pig iron, which the house had made dutiable at 8 per cent. The conference agreed to this. The senate cut the duty on round iron or steel wire from 20 per cent in the house bill to 15 per cent, and the conference accepted the senate reduction.

Agricultural Schedule.

The conference committee agreed to the senate amendment, which struck out the 10 per cent duty on cattle provided by the house bill and the 10 per cent rate on sheep and transferring both to the free list. The conference committee also put wheat on the free list, where the senate had placed it, by striking out a duty of 10 cents a bushel provided by the house bill.

The house won a victory in the fruit when the conference committee restored the classification based on the cubic feet of the containers in which such products are imported, which results in a slight decrease of the duty.

The senate also lost in the struggle over a proposed duty on bananas when the conference committee struck out the senate rate and restored bananas to the free list of the house bill.

Woolen Schedule.

Very few changes were made in the woolen schedule. The senate was sustained by the conference committee in its amendments fixing the dates when wool duties shall go into effect. Compromises were made by the conference committee between senate and house rates, by which wool tops will bear a duty of 10 per cent and yarns a duty of 18 per cent.

The senate sought to reduce the duty on woolen blankets and to free list blankets valued at not more than 40 cents a pound, but the conference committee rejected the amendment, and all blankets will bear duty at 25 per cent ad valorem. The house rates of 50 per cent ad valorem on carpets and rugs were adopted by the conference.

A compromise was reached on the paragraphs relating to angora goat hair, alpaca, by which the hair will pay a duty of 15 per cent; tops from such hair, 25 per cent, and plushes, velvet and other fabrics, 45 per cent.

Sundries.

The conference committee adopted the action of the senate, placing fulminates and gunpowder on the free list. There was a compromise on the paragraph relating to furs, but generally the house rates were restored.

The senate rates prevailed as to lace curtains and laces and the house won by having restored the paragraph in the house bill covering chamois skins and glove leathers, by which the former were made dutiable at 15 per cent, and the latter at 10 per cent. There was a compromise on the glove schedule between senate and house rates and the senate's action in free listing harness, saddles and saddlery parts was approved by the conference committee, although the house bill had made them dutiable at 20 per cent.

The only substantial victory won by the house in the free list was as to free art.

Here are rates of the new tariff compared with the Payne-Aldrich law:

PROVISIONS OF
NEW TARIFF BILLMeasure Is Expected to Yield
Large Revenue.

RATES LOWERED BY SENATE

As Prepared by the House the Average Duties Were About 30 Per Cent and as Finally Adopted the Average Is About 27 Per Cent—The Payne-Aldrich Bill Carried Average Duties of 35 Per Cent—Free List Is Increased.

PROGRESS OF THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

The following shows the chronological history of the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill:

Jan. 5 to Feb. 1—Hearings, house ways and means committee.

April 7—Bill introduced by Mr. Underwood and referred to the ways and means committee.

April 22—Bill reported by Mr. Underwood after Democratic caucus had approved it.

May 8—Passed house of representatives—yeas, 381; nays, 158.

May 9—Received by the senate and referred to finance committee.

June 26—Bill completed by senate finance committee and referred to Democratic caucus.

July 11—Bill reported to senate by Chairman Simmons with recommendation that it pass.

July 21—Made unfinished business of senate.

Sept. 9—Passed by senate—yeas, 44; nays, 37.

Sept. 11—House nonconcur in senate amendments, and bill goes to conference.

Sept. 26—Conference reach final adjustment.

After being under consideration in congress for nearly six months the new tariff bill is a law, and for the first time in nearly a quarter of a century the country has a tariff law originated by the Democratic party. The bill will doubtless be known as the Underwood-Simmons bill, taking the title from Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee of the house and Chairman Simmons of the finance committee of the senate.

The sponsors for the bill say that it will raise ample revenue. Chairman Simmons has been advised that it will yield a surplus of at least $10,000,000 a year above current expenses. If it does not meet the expenses of running the government the expenses will be reduced.

One remarkable thing about the present tariff bill, a precedent, in fact, is that the senate cut the average rate of duty carried by the bill below that fixed by the house. Heretofore in the making of a tariff bill the house has slashed the rates, while the senate has then taken up the bill and readjusted the rates on a higher general average.

The house bill carried a general average rate slightly below 30 per cent. This the senate cut a little over 4 per cent. The conference committee has raised the general average duty but slightly. The average ad valorem duty carried by the bill as perfected is about 27 per cent. The average under the present law is about 35 per cent.

Many Changes Considered.

The conference committee had to deal with 676 paragraphs on which there were disagreements. Some of these involved only the change of a word or a question of punctuation, but a majority of them represented differences in rates and a few were fundamental.

The house conferees also accepted the senate amendment fixing dates when the wool duties shall go into effect, which was one of the final stumbling blocks.

Raw wool will go on the free list on Dec. 1, and the reduced duties carried by the present bill will become effective on Jan. 1. The house bill proposed to make the wool duties effective immediately on the bill being signed by the president. The final action was an important concession to the manufacturers.

The senate won over the house also on controverted paragraphs in the schedule relating to cotton cloths and yarns. By this agreement slightly higher duties are given to certain coarser grades of cotton cloths and yarns by changing the classification.

Fur hats and frames, forms and other parts for the manufacture of such hats received a rate of 45 per cent. This matter affects the hat industry in Connecticut. The house fixed the rate at 40 per cent, the senate made it 45.

The silk schedule also was reopened, and the rate on silk partially manufactured from cocoons or wastes, not further advanced in manufacture than carded or combed silk, and silk noils, was reduced from 30 to 20 cents per pound.

The Metal Schedule.

Probably no single industry covered by the tariff bill suffered such reductions in duties as did the iron and steel industry. The house cut duties unsparingly, and then the senate followed by making still further reductions and increasing the free list.

The house, for example, placed a duty of 8 per cent on pig iron, spiegel scrap iron and scrap steel and like products and made ferro-manganese dutiable at 15 per cent. The senate free listed both of them, and the conference

DRAINAGE BOARD IS MEETING.

Authorizes the Issuance of $50,000 Bonds to Complete the Ditch.

The 102 river drainage board was in session in this city Friday and authorized the issuance of a bond issue of $50,000 for the completion of the drainage ditch. The bonds will be issued and will be sold as needed. Advertising for bids will start at once.

The board is thinking of using a dredge boat at the upper end of the ditch, and a four-foot drag line boat at the lower end of the ditch. However, they have not definitely decided on their plans.

The members of the board in attendance were J. C. Pistole, W. E. Hinton, James Strickler, Anderson Craig and H. H. McClurg. W. L. Holbrook of Bedford, the engineer of the board, was unable to attend the meeting.

ACCUSED OF TAKING HORSES.

Rube Alvis of Elmo Arrested Today at Request of Harrisonville, Mo., Authorities.

Rube Alvis of Elmo was arrested Friday morning by Sheriff Ed Wallace and brought to Maryville. Alvis, who is 25 years old, is charged with stealing three horses from a man named Frank Hale of Belton, Cass county, Mo., some two weeks ago. The horses were traced to Kansas City, where all track of them were lost. Alvis was located in Elmo.

Alvis claims that he was not in Belton at the time of the horses being taken, and don't know anything about the same. He has a brother at Belton, who he visited often, and has another brother at Burlington Junction. His brother at Belton lives close to the man that the horses were taken from.

Alvis was taken to Harrisonville this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff R. E. Trullinger.

RURAL SCHOOL TO GO.

The Government Urges Consolidation of Country Districts.

The old fashioned one-room school house of the country cross roads, within whose walls many of the country's most illustrious men received the rudiments of their education, would be entirely a thing of the past if the United States bureau of education at Washington had its way. Its place would be taken by the consolidated or centralized school, as recommended in a bulletin just issued by the bureau.

Wherever that change can be made without too great expense and without breaking up or disintegrating existing communities, it should be done, says the bureau. There is constant improvement in the facilities offered by the one-room rural school, particularly in relating school work to the farm needs, it is reported. Fewer and better schools with transportation furnished to pupils living at a distance is the recommendation.

Are Visiting in the City.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Morris of St. Joseph arrived in Maryville Thursday night for a few days' visit here. Mr. Morris is assistant superintendent and clerk of the bureau of labor statistics at St. Joseph. His report for September shows that the total number of applications for help were 1,117 and the total number of applications for male help were 664, and the total number for female help 435. The total number of male applications for employment were 695, and the total number of females applying for employment were 85. The total number of males placed filled were 583; total number unfilled was 22. The total number of placed by males, 483; total number unfilled, 22. The total number of places filled by females, 85. Mr. Morris adds to his report that the volume of business continues to increase from month to month. The business for September was the banner month in the history of the state labor bureau.

FOR TUBERCULOSIS

A FRIEDMANN INSTITUTE MAY BE LOCATED HERE.

MAY FORM A COMPANY

W. B. Starkey of Des Moines, Ia., is Here Interviewing Business Men in Regard to the Plan.

Maryville has been selected as a place where a Friedmann institute for Tuberculosis will be located if the proper encouragement is received. And Maryville will be the only place in Missouri where such treatment will be given.

Such is the statement of W. B. Starkey of Des Moines, Iowa, who is in Maryville today on business in connection with interviewing several of our citizens in regard to the proposition. Mr. Starkey is a former Maryville boy, was born and raised here, and would like to see the city have such an institution. In talking about the proposition, he said:

"Our plans are to organize a stock company here under the laws of the state for $150,000. Of this stock, $5,000 to be sold here and in this state. The rest of the stock to Dr. Friedmann and the parent stock company. Then to build or buy a place for a sanitarium. I have been corresponding and have looked over the old Shoemaker property in East Maryville across from the Burlington depot. That would be a good place for the sanitarium.

"We have the Friedmann institute in Iowa, only one town having it. I became interested and took some stock and it has proven to be a regular gold mine. The investment is a good one and the people will find it to be that way here. It is a good proposition for the town, it will advertise and bring many people here. When the proposition was first brought up to locate on institute in Missouri, five towns were suggested, Maryville being in the list. I at once said that I wanted to see it located in this town, it being my former home. So they sent me down here to see if the proposition would meet with favor.

"So far, the encouragement I have received is very favorable and I have two or three more people to see this afternoon. I am going to wire S. Elkan of New York City, the secretary, to come here at once and then the plans for the organization of the company will start.

"If Maryville is not in favor of the institution, then the chances are it will be located at Joplin, Sedalia or some other point.

"The Friedmann treatment for tuberculosis cost very little. For instance, it will cost $150 and on up and three injections will be necessary in the cases, each injection being thirty days apart. If a person that is poor and worthy and can't pay $150 for the treatment, then it will be given free of charge.

"Of course, it is necessary to have a sanitarium in connection with the laboratory. Patients would want to stay here while taking treatment."

Mr. Starkey will be in the city for a few days. He is the attorney for the Standard Disturbing company which have the rights in the United States for the Friedmann cures.

Was a Close Call.

Peter Curry met with an experience last Saturday that he will not soon forget, says the Hopkins Journal. He was in his Red driving from Hopkins to Maryville when he met a team near the corner where you turn to drive onto the Davey Jones river bridge. There is a deep ditch at this corner, and he pulled to one side and stopped his car to allow the team to pass. He proved to be too near the edge of the ditch and the rear right wheel dropped down, making it necessary to get a team to pull him out. A few inches more would have caused the car to have turned over. Beside himself, his wife and Abadore Bryoder were in the car and all were badly frightened.

SECURING HONORS

Bellows' Bull, Radium, Gets First in Junior Champion Class—Others Get Many Firsts.

C. D. Bellows, a member of the state board of agriculture, returned Friday morning from attending a meeting of the board at Sedalia, and also taking in the state fair, which is in progress this week at that place. The fair has been a great success, and the attendance is greater than it has ever been before.

Mr. Bellows reports that the Nodaway county boys are taking the honors. Mr. Bellows' herd bull, Radium, which he purchased last spring and will receive this fall, took first in the junior champion class. The bull has won many prizes at all the fairs held in this section of the country.

Omar Catterson & Son of this city and C. D. and E. F. Caldwell of Burlington Junction are taking many prizes on their Aberdeen Angus cattle at the fair. They have much competition, but seem to be leading them all with their stock.

J. P. Roelofson is winning several prizes with his Percheron horses.

W. W. Andrews of this city is in attendance. The school for the boys has been very successful, and next year efforts will be made to send four from each county instead of one.

There were thirty-four entries in the 1913 live stock judging contests. The high men in the contest are all students in the agricultural school at Columbia. Charles Caldwell of Burlington Junction was third in this contest. Nodaway county is noted for her fine live stock, and at every place the stock is exhibited they always take the premiums.

SENT SEED TO SOUTH DAKOTA.

Elmer Fraser of This City Shipped 500 Pounds of Sweet Clover Seed to Aberdeen, That State.

The Better Farming association of Aberdeen, S. D., ordered 500 pounds of sweet clover seed of Elmer Fraser of this city. The seed was shipped Friday. It will be used in that country by members of that association, which is an organization for the purpose of better farming. This is quite a compliment to Mr. Fraser to have people order sweet clover seed all the way from South Dakota.

Was Delegate to Convention.

Mrs. L. E. Sargent of Bolckow was in Maryville Friday morning on her way home from Columbia, Mo., where she attended the state W. C. T. U. convention.

Mrs. Thomas Leaves for Home.

Mrs. J. B. Thomas of Lathrop, Kan., who has been visiting in Maryville with her brother, J. F. Montgomery, and family, and niece, Mrs. G. B. Holmes, went to Camden Point Monday morning to visit relatives before going home. Mrs. Thomas also visited at Columbia and in Gentry county, and will soon close a five months' visiting trip.

Missionary to India in Hopkins.

Mrs. Nettie Hyde Felt, the Hopkins lady who made such a grand record as a missionary to far off India, and who has been living during the past few years in California, arrived in Hopkins last week to visit relatives and many old friends. She gave an interesting talk Sunday night at the Methodist church relative to her travels and work among the heathens.—Hopkins Journal.

DR. NEELY WRITES

TELLS HIS SIDE OF CASE

And the Beginning of His Troubles—Ready to Serve Out Sentence and Will Act Like a Man.

Dr. James E. Neely, the Elmo physician, who was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, after pleading guilty to the charge of bigamy, has written a statement to this paper. Dr. Neely will be taken to the pen some time next week. The following is the statement which was written in the county jail on Wednesday night:

Editor Democrat-Forum: I desire to thank the people of Elmo and vicinity through your paper for their kindness and patronage in the past and for sympathy shown in my present trouble.

Would like to say that the statements I made to the court are all true. I felt absolutely sure that my wife had obtained a divorce. She had sued me for divorce and separate maintenance in Henry county, Mo., two years ago this September. My attorney, Judge Crawford, advised me to sign a waiver of personal service, and sent it in as her attorney had written him wanting personal service. This I did in April, 1912. The court held there in May, 1912. I heard nothing at all until sometime after court had adjourned, when I saw a statement in a daily paper printed at Clinton, Mo., "Nora A. Neely vs. Jas. E. Neely, divorce, alias writ to any county in State."

This looked plain to me that she had obtained a divorce. The word alias I did not understand, and I thought as it was not a medical term that the best place to go for a definition was to Webster, and so I consulted Webster and found this definition that applied to the case. "Alias writ—A second writ or execution issued when the first has failed to satisfy the judgment." This applied to the case as she had obtained a judgment against me in Henry county for $3,000 temporary alimony. This I was willing for her to have. So I felt absolutely free. When, however, I found I had married that she had not obtained a divorce, I asked Mr. George P. Wright how I could correct my mistake, and explained the situation to him and asked him if my last wife and I should separate.

Mr. Wright said: "You have violated the law in the letter but not in the spirit, and there is not a jury in Christendom that would punish a man under such circumstances. But it is no use to send your present wife away."

This was last fall. I went back to Elmo and she and I talked it over and decided that it was best to separate, and she packed up and was ready to go away when I suggested that I would write to Mr. Wright and ask his advice about her going away. This I did and Mr. Wright wrote that it would be no use to send her away.

So we lived together all winter and she helped me in my practice, and I want to say she was of great value to me in my practice. The night was never too dark or stormy for her to go with me for company and to help. She made every night drive that I made except one the whole winter long. She did the work well of a trained nurse. I want to state here that any charge or inference made by Mr. Wright or my former wife of any illegitimate condition whatever, and I know whereof I speak, is erroneous.

To go back to the beginning of my trouble, I must go back to the first marriage, for our trouble began soon after we were married. The first summer I needed some farm implements, and asked the use of her money to buy them. Later a young sister of mine wanted to live with us, as she had no home. She came to our place but Mrs. Neely made it so miserable for me that I had to threaten to leave if my home was not good enough for sister and I both, but on account of my two boys, who were small then, I thought it out, and sister went away. We had various troubles and the gap widened until I finally left after the boys were grown. We had gotten along so badly in the last few years that I frequently expostulated with her and asked her to allow us to adjust our difficulties and live more peaceably, stating that I could not stand her quarrelling and nagging, and I would be bound to get away, but she would not listen to me, but would raise such a disturbance as to make a veritable hell on earth when I would come home from the office to dinner or supper. I left her well fixed at Calhoun, leaving a nice home well furnished and paid for, three acres of vacant land adjoining the home, a fine Jersey cow that I had paid $75 for, a horse and two buggies, about 100 head of blooded chickens, about $500 of collectable accounts. A first class office.

FINE INTEREST IN MEETINGS.

Two Were Received for Baptism at the First Baptist Church Wednesday Evening.

The attendance at the revival meetings in progress at the First Baptist church is increasing each night. The pastor, Rev. Hale, is directing all his messages this week to Christians, and his plain speech is causing all who hear him to think seriously upon the responsible positions they occupy as professing Christians. He believes that 95 per cent of the church members are asleep spiritually, and says it is no evidence whatever that a man is a saved man simply because he is a member of a church. It all depends on his personal relation to Jesus Christ.

He brought out the truth from the Scripture that it is a sure test of one's religion to know how much of an effort one is putting forth to save some one; how interested we are in the members of our own families or our friends; how much we are willing to do; what sacrifice we are willing to make that Maryville may be saved from the many evil influences that are at work.

The subject for Rev. Hale's sermon Wednesday night was found in the 5th chapter of Ephesians—"And walk in love, even as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God." The entire chapter was reviewed, and contained explicit instructions on the daily walk and habits of a Christian. They should be taken as simple commandments from a loving father, every word given in love.

"When love is the controlling principle of a man or woman's life there is positively no failure, for love never fails. The success of a church depends upon its love for Christ and how much it is willing to do for His sake, for everything depends upon Him. The measure of our power is the measure of our love. We will have power with men if we love them, for every human heart will respond to the touch of love," said the preacher.

Two were received for baptism at the close of the service.

The services Thursday evening were of still greater interest. Rev. Hale used for his text Isaiah's answer to the call of God in his vision, "Here am I, send me." He said the great need of the Christian churches today is a vision that is born of the right conception of God. That is the greatest weakness of all Christians, they do not know God; they do not have the right conception of His holiness. His mighty love, majesty and power. If only the eyes of professing Christians were opened to the actual conditions about them they would be stirred to an effort in behalf of those who are without Christ that could never know defeat. Isaiah dwelt among an unclean people, yet he had a vision of God, His character, and the conditions that led him to cry out in eagerness, "Here am I, send me."

"It's a man's job, being a Christian. There is no child's play about it. It calls forth the greatest consecration, the exertion of every power that God has given us to live as we should and lead others. But it is a glorious life because we share with our Saviour His sufferings for us in doing for others. It is the love of Christ that constrains us and holds to the work of seeking to lead men to Him. If it was not for the love I have for Christ and the knowledge that He has called me to the ministry, I would leave the pulpit and never go back to it, for the persecution of indifference that workers endure in His service is as great to-day and is as hard to bear as in the days of Christ's ministry on earth."

There was one addition to the church and one request for prayer.

Coughed Up the Pin.

Our readers will remember that in this paper appeared an article about two weeks ago of little Connie Butts, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butts, residing west of Hopkins, swallowing a pin. The little girl came near choking to death at the time, and might have died but for the presence of mind of the father, who poked his index finger down her throat, thus dislodging the pin, it being taken for granted that the pin had passed into the child's stomach. Apparently the incident caused the little girl no trouble, but of course the parents could not help worrying and were greatly relieved last Friday when the girl, while coughing, brought forth the pin with the phlegm raised from her lungs.

outfit, consisting of all kinds of instruments, nebulizer and X-ray, together with a large supply of medicines and medical books. I brought $800 with me when I left, but of course that is gone long ago and she has spent her money. She spent her money lawing me, and finally her attorney, not mine, suggested that I send her money to come to Maryville, and she would have the case nolle prosequed. This I did, but I felt that it would be of no use to do that, from the fact that she could put the case back in court any time she saw fit inside of two years. I told my attorney that it was absolutely useless to do that, for I knew her disposition better than any one else, and I knew she would stick me for the cost and then turn her nose up about something and put the case back. This she did, because she heard and Mr. Wright heard a rumor that I was living with the second wife again, which was not true. She came to Elmo from St. Louis, where she had been working to get some of her belongings, but we did not live together as man and wife, as the hotel people know, and we were not out at night, as Mr. Wright thought. She had her room and I had mine, and I was never in her room nor she in mine. In a few days she went away and never returned. The first wife wrote for money, and money was and is all she wants, and I sent her some money, and intended to send more the next week, but she and Mr. Wright had me arrested the second time that week. In the meantime, however, to show you that she was after money and property as well as revenge, she sent a deed for me to sign over to my Calhoun property, but I refused to do that, and as soon as I wrote that I would not, I was arrested again.

Now that it is all over and I must serve a term, I feel that I am relieved of any obligation to my boys, as they were instrumental in bringing about my punishment. I could have been of service to them and could have aided the older ones in their education.

For one, who is afflicted with tuberculosis of one kidney. And the younger one, who has two years of high school work yet, and then wants to study dentistry.

I have never had any desire to get away or shun any requirements of the law for I desire to do right and want to have it over and will do my best at the state house to show myself to be a man.

J. E. NEELY.

When a representative of this paper interviewed Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright, he said:

"I have no comment to make and would engage in no newspaper controversy or discussion. Dr. Neely had able counsel, who no doubt investigated the merits of this case, and he, acting under their advice, entered a plea of guilty as charged. The court, after a careful consideration of the facts and Dr. Neely's statement, assessed the punishment at two years."

SOME EVIDENCE IS STRICKEN OUT

One Motion by Governor Sulzer's Counsel Allowed.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Adjournment until Monday afternoon was taken in the impeachment trial of Governor Sulzer after a few motions made by counsel for the defense had been disposed of.

The first motion on had to do with the instruction of testimony of Louis A. Sarecky, the governor's campaign secretary, taken before the Frawley committee. This was testified to by the stenographer who reported it. Judge Cullen held the testimony was hearsay and would go out.

The next motion was to strike out certain testimony of J. B. Gray, the Wall street broker, in regard to a conversation he had with F. S. Colwell, the governor's alleged Wall street agent. Judge Cullen ruled that the testimony would stand.

Judge Humphries Angry as Colleagues Bar Way to Prison.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—After Superior Judge John E. Humphries had sent twelve men and six women to the county jail for contempt of his court, a consultation of other judges of the superior court was held. Thorwald Siegfried, an attorney, who previously had complained to the bar association of Judge Humphries in regard to his use of the writ of injunction, was requested to apply for a writ of procedure.

Siegfried applied to Judge Everett Smith for the release of Glenn Hoyer, an attorney for the Free Speech Defense league, and G. H. Hodgson, one of the signers of "Resolutions of protest" against Judge Humphries' anti-street speaking injunctions, and they were released on their own recognizance.

Judge Humphries was very angry when he heard of the consultation of his fellow judges and the release of two of the prisoners. He said he sent to the press, in which he denounced the other judges.

The scene in Judge Humphries' court was remarkable. The court room was jammed to suffocation and the crowd interrupted and applauded frequently. Most of the prisoners when arraigned expressed anew their contempt for the judge and defied him to do his worst.

AMERICAN CHILD SLAIN

Foreigners Maltreated by Chinese Brigands at Tsaoayang.

Peking, Oct. 3.—The American legation here received a report from J. Paul Jameson, vice consul general at Shanghai, stating that an American child had been killed and other foreigners were being maltreated by Chinese brigands at Tsaoayang.

The legation fears that the Chinese government troops are neither capable nor zealous enough to accomplish the release of the American and Norwegian missionaries in the hands of the bandits at Tsaoayang and that ransom alone can save the lives of foreigners still in captivity.

To Tennessee on Honeymoon.

A quiet wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Jones on West Second street, when Miss Sadie Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Pierson, living southwest of Maryville, was united in marriage to Mr. Alva A. Hardisty, a prosperous young farmer of the same community, and a son of A. Hardisty of East First street.

The pretty bride wore a most becoming gown of white embroidered voile trimmed in shadow lace. Her going away suit was of navy blue serge, felt hat of the same color, trimmed in white plumes. Mr. and Mrs. Hardisty left on the afternoon Burlington train on a two or three weeks' honeymoon to Memphis, Tenn., and other points.

They stand on the front row with good young people and enjoy the esteem of many friends. They will be at home on the Hardisty farm, seven miles southwest of Maryville.

Guest of J. C. Johnson.

Agent W. E. Goforth of the Burlington railway, while in St. Louis attending the Masonic grand lodge, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson at luncheon Wednesday evening at a hotel, and on Thursday visited them in their home. Mr. Goforth succeeded Mr. Johnson as agent at the Burlington station in Maryville. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who have many friends in our city, asked many more questions than Mr. Goforth could reply to in regard to Maryville and Maryville people, showing their interest in the best town and the best people in the world has not near vanished, although they have been away for fifteen years or more.

Society Met in Country.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. D. Kemp, north of Maryville. Forty members were present and there were several visitors, Mrs. S. A. Muse, Mrs. W. R. Wells, Mrs. T. K. Wray, Mrs. Clara Stewart, Mrs. H. W. Hull and Miss Ethel Embree and her guest, Miss Elizabeth McGrew of Washington, Pa. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. O. C. Hanna, with Scripture reading, followed with prayer led by Mrs. H. D. Anderson. The lesson was from the first chapter of the mission study book, "The King's Business," read by Mrs. Catherine Funk. The mystery box quiz was conducted by Mrs. Hanna. During the business session Mrs. I. W. Nixon, Mrs. M. D. Kemp, Mrs. W. O. Garrett, Mrs. Gilbert S. Cox and Mrs. R. S. Branigan were elected delegates to the Kansas City branch conference in that city, October 16-20, with Mrs. W. B. Christie and Mrs. J. A. Lesh as alternates. The silver side of the mystery box contest then announced their decision to send Mrs. Walter Mutz to the Kansas City meeting as a delegate. The contest was very successful and was divided into two sections, the "silvers" and the "golds," the silvers making the best showing. During the social hour the company was served by Mrs. W. T. Ramsey, Mrs. Walter Mutz and Mrs. S. H. Kemp. Other guests of the afternoon were Miss Jane Barrow, Mrs. G. R. Epperson and her sister, Mrs. Martha Patrick of Pacific Grove, Cal.

Will Have Membership Contest.

At the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors lodge Thursday afternoon it was decided to hold a membership contest. Captains were chosen for the two sides into which the lodge was divided, and the side gaining the most new members by a certain time will receive a prize of $10. The losing side will give a banquet to the victors, thus showing how magnanimously they can take defeat. After the business was finished Mrs. C. E. Jones served raspberries and cream, cake and tea to the Neighbors. There was one visitor, Mrs. C. G. Avey of Indianapolis, Ind., a sister of Mrs. Jones, who is visiting here. The captains chosen for the contest are Mrs. Del Thompson and Mrs. Henry Thorp. Mrs. Thompson's followers will be Mrs. E. L. Andrews, Mrs. Joseph Cast, Mrs. George E. 60 Tons of Coal to be Given Away

Our Annual Fall Stove Show which opened last week with the Majestic Demonstration is a regular three ring circus, and it is not half over. We do not claim like Barnum, that this is "the greatest show on earth" but we do say in all sincerity that it is a show of the greatest stoves on earth.

The Majestic Ranges, Favorite Base Burners, Estate Oak Heaters and Cole's Hot Blast Heaters

Have been pleasing the public for several years and have won universal recognition as the best built, longest wearing, and most scientifically constructed stove in America. They have always led in improvements and this year more than ever before.

Saturday, October 4, the Cole's Hot Blast will be sold to the highest bidder.

Thursday, October 9, a special demonstrator from the factory will demonstrate the ECONOMY SOFT COAL BASE BURNER and will give absolutely free to each purchaser of same, one ton of Illinois Nut coal worth $5.25. PROVISIONS OF NEW TARIFF BILL ference committee after a considerable deadlock yielded to the senate.

The senate also free listed silks, blooms, loops and other products of iron more advanced than pig iron, which the house had made dutiable at 8 per cent. The conference agreed to this. The senate cut the duty on round iron or steel wire from 20 per cent in the house bill to 15 per cent, and the conference accepted the senate reduction.

Agricultural Schedule.

The conference committee agreed to the senate amendment, which struck out the 10 per cent duty on cattle provided by the house bill and the 10 per cent rate on sheep and transferring both to the free list. The conference committee also put wheat on the free list, where the senate had placed it, by striking out a duty of 10 cents a bushel provided by the house bill.

The house won a victory in the duty on lemons and other citrus fruit when the conference committee restored the classification based on the cubic feet of the containers in which such products are imported, which results in a slight decrease of the duty.

The senate also lost in the struggle over a proposed duty on bananas when the conference committee struck out the senate rate and restored bananas to the free list of the house bill.

Woolen Schedule.

Very few changes were made in the woolen schedule. The senate was sustained by the conference committee in its amendments fixing the dates when wool duties shall go into effect. Compromises were made by the conference committee between senate and house rates, by which wool tops will bear a duty of 10 per cent and yarns a duty of 18 per cent.

The senate sought to reduce the duty on woolen blankets and to free list blankets valued at not more than 40 cents a pound, but the conference committee rejected the amendment, and all blankets will bear duty at 25 per cent ad valorem. The house rates of 50 per cent ad valorem on carpets and rugs were adopted by the conference.

A compromise was reached on the paragraphs relating to angora goat hair, alpaca, by which the hair will pay a duty of 15 per cent; tops from such hair, 25 per cent; and plushes, velvet and other fabrics, 45 per cent.

The conference committee adopted the action of the senate, placing fulminates and gunpowder on the free list. There was a compromise on the paragraph relating to furs, but generally the house rates were restored.

The senate rates prevailed as to lace curtains and laces and the house was by having restored the paragraph in the house bill covering chamois skins and glove leathers, by which the former were made dutiable at 15 per cent, and the latter at 10 per cent. There was a compromise on the glove schedule between senate and house rates and the senate's action in free listing harness, saddles and saddlery parts was approved by the conference committee, although the house bill had made them dutiable at 20 per cent.

The only substantial victory won by the house in the free list was as to free art.
